RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT CAPT. REUBEN B. HUTCHCRAFT.

Paris, Ky., Jan. 4, 1919.
One of our most beloved brothers has cheerfully, gallantly and characteristically offered his life to the awful demands of our war. Word comes to us and his loved ones, that the war has demanded of him that which he offered.
Captain Reuben Brent Hutchcraft was "killed in action."
In his early majority brother Hutchcraft was made a Master Mason and well has he proven himself worthy. Long will he live in our memory; long will his worthiness continue to inspire his brothers, and long will his achievements fire the ambitions of those to whom they will be of times related.

We have missed Reuben from our circle in the lodge and from our midst in every day life, since his enlistment—missed him and wished him home again—and we shall miss him more during the long absence that is to come. His place in the lodge, alike in his business, his profession and his pleasures, and more especially in his home, can never be filled. Mindful of this as we are, we grieve his loss together with his other associates and his family.

Reuben was always surprising us with his accomplishments. We had seen him succeed and achieve as a lawyer, as a professor and as a statesman. Little did we reckon him a soldier. He was so many other things that to us seemed more important. But his success was no less marked. As a soldier he did what he has done as a lawyer, a professor, a statesman, a friend and a Mason. He gave all that was in him to give (which was no little mite.) "He gave until it hurt."

Because of these and hundreds of other things we can never find words to express, we do now, sadly, reluctantly to bend to the will of the Almighty in humble submission, draft these resolutions:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, That we as men and Masons can only hope to be and do as our deceased Brother Hutchcraft was and did, in order that we may the better be prepared to greet him on the other side after our short allotted space of time on these shores shall have expired.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we extend to his loved ones, his mother, his father and his sisters, a sympathy which is real and true and which springs from us as a body of Masons and as individuals.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That one copy of these, our resolutions, be furnished the family of Brother Hutchcraft.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary cause these resolutions to be published and to be spread upon the Minute Books of the Lodge.

B-4 FIRE Insure with W.O. HINTON & SON, AGTS

SADIEVILLE VISITED BY A DISASTROUS FIRE.

Three business houses in Sadieville, Scott county, on the other side of the railroad track, burned to the ground Wednesday, including the Sadieville Milling Company, owned by Dr. C. C. Collins and his brother, Will Collins; the general merchandise store of Thomas F. Sherritt and the livery stable of Davis and Parker.

It is understood that the fire originated in the livery stable and was caused by an overheated stove.

The loss is estimated at about $25,000. The mill was valued at $6,000 and contained 8,000 bushels of wheat, besides feed and other grains, worth at least $5,000 more. Mr. Sherritt carried a stock of merchandise valued at about $7,000.
